10TV NEWS HD: “10 Investigates: Daycare Report.” A three-month 10TV News investigation of local daycares found problems that would make most parents cringe... children who wandered outside alone... a cook who disciplined kids with a rope... and a system that allows employees to work without completed background checks. Tracy Townsend reports. (L/N) 4/26/07, 6pm; TRT: 3:45.

OPRAH WINFREY SHOW: “The Man Who ‘Adopted’ 6,000 Children.” Many of America’s children are in crisis, falling and failing in life. Meet people just like you who are stepping up and making a difference. CSI Star, Hill Harper, goes inside a juvenile prison. And, three teachers who led the way to a California miracle. Plus, how one man is saving thousands of American children. (S/PA) 6/29/07.

DR. PHIL SHOW: “Child Stars, Part 3.” Dr. Phil’s child star competition heats up! Seven kids with stars in their eyes face the final leg of the competition in the Dr. Phil House, but do their mothers unwittingly sabotage their chances? After speaking with Veronica, Kiki and Larissa about how they could be a liability to their child’s success, Dr. Phil turns to Kim and Susan. Playing a video clip of Kim’s daughter, Alaina, in an interview, Dr. Phil points out the pressure and stress that she feels and how it may affect her performance in school. Then, Dr. Phil shows a video of Susan assisting her daughter, Megan, during the dance rehearsals, and how Meagan struggled under her demands. Will these mothers adjust their behavior and take on a healthy, supportive role in their child’s career? Then, it’s time for the final talent show! Each child performs on the Dr. Phil Stage, in front of his studio audience and a panel of Hollywood’s top talent agents, managers and casting directors, who decide the grand-prize winner. The children receive fabulous prizes for their hard work, but they mean little to one upset mother. Don’t miss the exciting conclusion as the ultimate winner receives amazing opportunities to help launch a successful showbiz career! (S/PA) 5/21/07.

DR. PHIL SHOW: “Teen Plastic Surgery” (OAD 10/13/06). Last year alone, more than a quarter of a million kids had plastic surgery, and it’s a growing trend. Nineteen-year-old Krystal says she’ll never feel beautiful until she gets breast implants. Her mother, Kristi, and her sister, Katie, have both had plastic surgery—and want even more—but strongly object to Krystal doing it. What does Dr. Phil think? Then, Diana wants her daughter, Bri, to get plastic surgery on her neck, arms, stomach, thighs and breasts—and Bri is only 12 years old. Diana believes it will make Bri prettier and help her fit in among her peers. What message is this sending to Bri? Plus, one teen’s plastic surgery nightmare taught her a valuable lesson—the hard way. She hopes her story will be a warning to other girls before they go under the knife. (S/PA) 6/8/07.

DR. PHIL SHOW: “Little Boys, Big Weight Problems” (OAD 2/7/07). More than half a billion adults are overweight worldwide, but even more shocking is that millions of children are already on the road to obesity. Amy’s son Harrison, is only 7 years old, but already weighs 152 pounds. She says her husband, Tim, has no problem with their son’s size. He feeds the boy cookies, chips and ice cream, and even sneaks sugary snacks to his room at night. Amy fears that they’re killing their son with food. Is Tim the only one to blame for Harrison’s weight problem? World-renowned pediatrician Dr. Jim Sears, shares his thoughts. Then, Carla wrote to Dr. Phil because her 4-year-old grandson, Logan, is already 30 pounds overweight. She says he has terrible eating habits and even breaks into the cupboard to sneak junk food. Carla wants to help him but says she can’t discuss the problem with her daughter, Jennifer, without an argument. Can Carla and Jennifer stop fighting long enough to start Logan on the path to weight loss? Plus, when Josh was on the show four years ago, he was 4 years old, 155 pounds and could barely walk. Dr. Phil worried that the little boy wouldn’t live to see another year. Is Josh still in jeopardy? (S/PA) 6/21/07.

DR. PHIL SHOW: “Problem Parent or Problem Child” (OAD 1/24/07). Sometimes it’s hard to tell who’s to blame for family problems. The parent says it’s the child, the child says it’s the parent. Dr. Phil uncovers where the problem lies in these families. Penny says her life is in shambles because her 17-year-old son, Jason, is extremely threatening and violent. Jason says his mother is a lazy alcoholic, and all he has ever wanted was to feel loved by her. Penny’s sister, Jackie, says Penny has a drinking problem and wants them to get help before they kill each other. Then, Kim has three sons—14, 2 and 15 months—but says she loves her middle son, Cullen the most. She has pictures of him all over her house, but not her other two sons. She takes Cullen to bed with her at night, while the baby cries himself to sleep in his own room and she buys Cullen new clothes, while her youngest gets hand-me-downs. Her oldest son says he has felt neglected his whole life, and is worried the baby will feel that way, too. Kim’s friend, Starlette, says Kim’s baby has even started calling her Mama. What’s behind Kim’s favoritism, and why does she feel justified? (S/PA) 6/27/07.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: “Power, Passion and Poison.” A report on the death of 50-year-old Kathy Augustine, a career politician from Nevada. Questions arose about the cause of her death after police received a tip from her husband’s co-worker that she may have been poisoned, and toxicology reports further confirmed the presence of the powerful paralytic drug Succinylcholine. That discovery led to further questions about the death three years earlier of her estranged husband, Charles Augustine; her subsequent and immediate marriage to Chaz Higgs, a nurse who had cared for him, and if politics played any part in her death. Upon further investigation, Chaz Higgs was arrested and charged with the murder of Kathy Augustine. He is currently free on bail and his trial is scheduled to begin next month. Nevada authorities are no longer investigating alleged threats against Augustine by political enemies. Includes interviews with Augustine’s parents, Phil & Kay Alfano; Reno Police Detective, Dave Jenkins; Charles Augustine's sons from a previous marriage, Larry and Greg. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Lisa Freed, Doug Longhini, Steven Reiner). (N/PA) 5/5/07.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Death of a Dream." A follow-up to "The Last Dance", OAD: 05/06/06. In 2002, Catherine Woods, an aspiring dancer, left Ohio at age 17 and went to New York in search of fame and fortune, but ended up becoming a stripper to pay the rent. While in New York, she became involved with fitness instructor Paul Cortez, who, at first, was unaware of her exotic dancing career, while continuing to live with her ex-boyfriend David Haughn. On Sunday of the 2005 Thanksgiving weekend, Catherine was savagely murdered. The two men became suspects in her murder and it was then that her exotic dancing career came to light to the police and to her family. Police concluded that Paul Cortez, due to his jealous nature, was the prime suspect. He was arrested and ultimately convicted of Catherine's murder. He was sentenced to 25 years to life. Attorney Nathan Dershowitz is planning an appeal, claiming hair and other forensic evidence was never thoroughly tested. Included are interviews with David Haughn; Paul Cortez and his mother, Yvette Cortez; and Catherine's parents, Jon and Donna Woods. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Patti Aronofsky). (N/PA) 5/12/07.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Beyond the Boardwalk." A report on the deaths of four women: Tracy Ann Roberts, Kim Raffo, Barbara Briedor, and Molly Jean Dilts, all suspected prostitutes and/or drug addicts. They were all found on November 20, 2006, in a ditch, facing east, without their shoes near the Golden Key Motel on the outskirts of Atlantic City, NJ. Police suspect a serial killer but clues in the case have led to little information. As of now, no one has been arrested or charged in the homicides. A person of interest, Terry Oleson, a handyman who lived at the motel and worked odd jobs to pay the rent, has been arrested for an unrelated offense - videotaping a minor in the nude with a hidden camera. His house has been searched and he has now been asked to provide DNA samples. (C: Harold Dow - P: Miguel Sancho). (N/PA) 5/19/07.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Shot In The Dark." (9:00 – 10:00 pm) Dr. Richard Illes, a successful heart surgeon, and his wife, Miriam, a homemaker and mother to their young son, were a prominent couple in their small community of Williamsport, PA. Then, on Jan. 15, 1999, Miriam was fatally shot as she stood in front of her kitchen window. Because Miriam had filed for divorce from her husband, investigators theorized that Richard Illes was responsible. Eventually, the killer's gun and sneakers were found not far from where Dr. Illes had been on the night of the murder. Illes had married his assistant and moved to Spokane, Washington, where he was finally apprehended and arrested. Upon searching Illes' home in Spokane, police found an manuscript in his computer entitled "Heart Shot: Murder Of The Doctor's Wife." A jury found Illes guilty of murder in the first degree. He maintains his innocence and is appealing his conviction. (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Paul F. Ryan, Martin Zied, Lourdes Aguiar) No individual segment titles were used in this episode. (OAD: 01/08/05 with an update.) (N/PA) 5/

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Secrets & Lies On Grapevine Lake." (10:00 – 11:00 pm) In April 2002, the body of successful real estate agent, David Nixon of Grapevine, Texas, was discovered in a storm drain in a nearby town. He had been shot in the heart and his remains burned beyond recognition. At the time of the murder Nixon and his live-in girlfriend Tracy Frame were in the process of splitting up and were fighting over the house where they both lived. Police investigating the crime focused on Frame who denied any wrongdoing. Three years after Nixon's death, Tracy Frame was tried, found guilty of murder and sentenced to 40 years in prison. She will be eligible for parole in 20 years. She is appealing the verdict. Includes interviews with: Tracy Frame; Donna Lella, David Nixon's first wife; Nicholas, their son; Jerry Vowell, a used car dealer, who was scheduled to meet David Nixon the night he disappeared; Detective Larry Hallmark; Donald Feare, Tracy's defense attorney; and the prosecutor, Assistant D.A. Sean Colston. (C: Troy Roberts - Sr. P: Anthony Batson - P: Peter Henderson) (OAD: 10/22/05) (N/PA) 5/26/07

FACE THE NATION: The shootings (April 16) at Virginia Tech University. Topics include: (a) the situation today on the University / continuation of a police presence on campus / the need for an independent commission to examine all aspects of the event and situation / the question of people legally carrying concealed weapons as a safeguard against killers; (b) the advantage of a stress assessment team for early intervention in a potentially violent situation; NBC's airing of the pictures sent to them by the gunman; (c) the effectiveness of the Brady law / federal vs. state guidelines for reporting mentally ill individuals; (d) possible Judiciary Committee hearing on guns after Virginia issues its report / enforcing current gun laws. Guests: Larry Hincker, Associate Vice President, University Relations, Virginia Tech; Gregg McCrary, former FBI profiler; Sarah Brady and Jim Brady, gun control advocates; Senator Patrick Leahy (D-VT), Chairman, Judiciary Committee. (N/PA) 4/22/07.

7. War on Terrorism/National Security

60 MINUTES: “Inside The Enemy Camp.” An interview/profile of Nazir Abas, a former Muslim terrorist and top commander in Jemaah Islamiyah, al-Qaeda's franchise operation in Southeast Asia. He defected after Osama bin Laden issued a religious edict declaring all Americans and Jews fair targets for al-Qaeda terror. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael H. Gavshon). (N/PA) 5/6/07.

60 MINUTES: “Fathers, Sons And Brothers.” 60 MINUTES devotes the entire broadcast to the First Battalion of the 133rd Infantry of the Iowa National Guard serving in Iraq. Over the course of nearly two years, the report and the cameras follow the soldiers and their families as they experience the realities of war, both in Iraq and at home. Interviews with individual soldiers and their family members chronicle the impact of the war on their lives. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Shawn Efran). (N/PA) 5/27/07.

FACE THE NATION: Interview with retired Major General Paul Eaton and Dr. Fred Kagan. Topics include: their perspectives on the efficacy of the recent U.S. troop surge / a reduced level of violence; the preparedness level of the Iraqi army and national police / factors affecting their training; when a significant difference in the Iraqi situation may be expected. Guests: retired Major General Paul Eaton, votevets.org ; Dr. Fred Kagan, Military Historian and strategist with American Enterprise Institute (N/PA) 5/20/07.

CBS NEWS SPECIAL PRESENTATION: “Flashpoint.” On May 29, 2006—Memorial Day in the U.S.—CBS News Correspondent Kimberly Dozier, cameraman Paul Douglas and soundman James Brolan were embedded with the U.S. Army's Fourth Infantry Division in Baghdad to produce a report on the fact that it was “just another day at work” for the troops in Iraq. But, on that day, a remotely detonated car bomb killed Douglas and Brolan, as well as Army Captain James Alex Funkouser and his Iraqi translator, Sam. It also critically injured Dozier and several members of the Fourth I.D. This report follows Dozier's long journey back to normalcy, through more than 25 surgeries, and follows the physical and emotional aftermath for those soldiers also severely injured in the blast. Included are interviews with Dr. David Steinbruner, who attended to Dozier in Baghdad; recovering Fourth I.D. members: Staff Sgt. Nathan Reed, Sgt. Justin Farrar, Corp. Michael Potter, Specialist Leon Snipes, Sgt. Ezequiel Hernandez; CBS News producer Kate Rydell; Jennifer Funkouser, the widow of Captain Funkouser; the widow of Paul Douglas. DR. PHIL SHOW: “House of Hatred (OAD 10/23/06).” Dr. Phil starts a groundbreaking social experiment. Six individuals from different walks of life, with different judgments and prejudices will live under the same roof, in an attempt to break down the walls of hatred and intolerance. Gary, 26, is a white supremacist who hates all people of other races. B., 58, is an African-American woman who thinks all people are “ignorant sociopaths.” Staci, 22, is a thin woman who thinks fat people are “disgusting blobs” and not people at all. John, 24, is over 600 pounds and hates skinny people. Christina, 22, believes all homosexuals are sinners. Tessa, 19, is a lesbian who hates straight people. Dr. Phil puts them to the test with assignments that force them to work together with their adversary. It doesn’t take long for hostility to break out, sending Dr. Phil over to the house, saying, “This has got to stop.” Will these guests learn acceptance, or turn on each other? (S/PA) 6/18/07.
