1. Education

10TV News HD: “10 Investigates: Teacher License Loopholes.” They crossed the line with kids in their classrooms. But 10TV Investigates finds teachers acting inappropriately often keep their licenses.

We take our findings to the Department of Education for answers and provoke possible change by local lawmakers. Paul Aker reports. (L/N) 11/10/08, 6pm, TRT: 4:13.

DR. PHIL SHOW: “Campus Crisis.” Parents and College students: listen up! Did you know that as many as one in four college women are victims of rape or attempted sexual assault? And that nearly one-third of college men say they are likely to have sex with an unwilling partner if they think they can get away with it? Know the safety tips and warning signs before you or your child is caught in a crisis. (S/PA) 10/14/08.

DR. PHIL SHOW: “School Discipline: Out of Control?” When you send your children to school, you expect them to be taught in a nurturing environment. But what should you do if you learn your child has experienced extreme discipline by those entrusted to teach him or her? Get some good advice on today’s show. (S/PA) 12/5/08.

2. Youth

10TV NEWS HD: “Pediatric HealthSource: Halloween Candy.” Halloween usually means candy, candy, candy. But if you’re committing to be fit - don't forget you could offer trick or treaters healthier alternatives. Andrea Cambern reports. (L/N) 10/16/2008; 5 p.m.; TRT: 40.

10TV NEWS HD: “Cough Medicine for Kids.” Some of the nation’s pediatricians are urging the Food and Drug Administration to ban cough and cold medicine for kids under age six because so many show up in emergency rooms with accidental overdoses. Westerville pharmacist Jarrett Bauder says there would be fewer problems if parents would pay attention to dosing instructions. Andrea Cambern reports. (L/N) 10/2/08, 5:30pm TRT: 0:50.

10TV NEWS HD: “Pediatric HealthSource: Grandparents Care.” A new report finds when grandparents care for the kids, children suffer half as many injuries as when the kids are in daycare, or are watched by their own mothers. Andrea Cambern reports. (L/N) 11/3/2008; 5 p.m.; TRT: 40.

10TV NEWS HD: “Kids and Kidney Stones.” Kidney stones were once an ailment of middle age. But doctors all over the nation are seeing a surge in small children with kidney stones. Dr. Rama Jayanthi of Nationwide Children’s Hospital says the problem is diet. Kids are replacing water with soda pop, which is high in salt, and eating too many highly salted, prepared foods. Too much salt helps form kidney stones. We profile one child and her story. Tracy Townsend reports. (L/N) 11/13/08, 5 pm, TRT: 1:30.

6. Crime

60 MINUTES: “The FBI's Wise Guy” - an interview with Joaquin “Jack” Garcia, the Cuban-American FBI agent who infiltrated the Gambino crime family as Jack Falcone, an Italian gangster character he created in 2002 to take down one of the most powerful mobsters in America. Extremely successful, he gained the trust of Gambino capo Greg DePalma, who offered to make Falcone a “made member” of the Mafia -- a proposal which would have made him the first law enforcement agent in history to ever achieve that position. Recently retired after 26 years, he is the author of “Making Jack Falcone”. (C: Armen Keteyian - P: Pat Milton, Michael Radutzky). (N/PA) 10/12/08.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: “The Last Take.” An investigation into the unsolved 1977 murder of actress Christa Helm, who was found stabbed and bludgeoned outside her agent's home in West Hollywood, California. Police at first thought her murder might be connected to the sensational killing of actor Sal Mineo, murdered exactly one year before in the same neighborhood. Detectives also found out about her infamous “love diary” -- but it had vanished. The diary was not the only way she had kept track of her lovers; there were tape recordings of her sexcapades with her celebrity boyfriends, but those tapes also disappeared. The hunt for the tapes lead to actor Tony Sirico (now best known as ‘Paulie Walnuts’ on “The Sopranos”), who had been sent by Helm's friends to remove them from her residence. In 2006, when investigators finally spoke to Sirico, he was less than cooperative, but the missing items turned up in the possession of Lennie Barin, Helm's closest friend. Now 31 years into the case, detectives have discovered a long string of boyfriends and girlfriends of Christa's, and suspect that jealousy may have been the motive in her murder. However, recent information has led back to the Sal Mineo connection, and his murderer, Lionel Williams, who served 12 years for the crime. After sifting through all the drama of Christa's life, could the detectives discover that she was simply the victim of a random street robbery at the hand of a career criminal? Her daughter hopes that the murder will be solved, whatever the reason. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Chuck Stevenson, Paul F. Ryan) (OAD: 04/26/08; Includes an update). (N/PA) 10/4/08.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: “Into Thin Air.” A report on the disappearance of Jeanette Louise Zapata, who mysteriously vanished without a trace from her home in Madison, Wisconsin on October 11, 1976 -- leaving behind her daughter Linda, and two other children. In the midst of a divorce at the time of her disappearance, she had been married for seventeen years to an engineer, Eugene Zapata. Their marriage had been troubled -- Jeanette discovered that Eugene had sent nude photographs of her to a swingers magazine and oftentimes his behavior towards her around their children was sexual and provocative. Due to his stalking-like behavior, she also had a restraining order against Zapata. Though Officer Greg Martin found Zapata’s behavior strange, the results of his lie detector test were inconclusive. With no physical evidence, the case stalled. Eugene Zapata moved back into the house he had once occupied with Jeanette and acted as though nothing had happened. He explained to the children that Jeanette had simply taken off because she was stressed. In November 2004, Jeanette’s best friend, Peggy Weekly -- who never believed that Jeanette would abandon her three children -- contacted police in Madison to reopen the case. Assigned to the case was Detective Marianne Flynn Statz, who after a preliminary investigation, was convinced that Jeanette had been killed and that the right suspect was Eugene. She contacted Linda Zapata, who expressed her own doubts regarding her father’s innocence and agreed to help police with their case. After a thorough investigation, Eugene Zapata was arrested for the murder of Jeanette. His trial began in September 2007, but ended in a hung jury. Prosecutor Bob Kaiser was ready to go back to court and try Zapata again, when Zapata surprised everyone and agreed to answer questions regarding Jeanette’s disappearance, but only if prosecutors would reduce the charge from murder to reckless homicide. His daughter Linda agreed. According to Eugene, he had argued with Jeanette the morning of October 11, 1976 and when her back was turned, hit her on the head with a paperweight and then strangled her twice. Then he began a grisly thirty year odyssey with her body: burying it, exhuming it, reburying it, and eventually he cut her body into pieces and took it to a land fill. Eugene Zapata was sentenced to five years for reckless homicide. Linda Zapata has been cut off from her immediate family: despite Eugene’s plea, her brother and sister believe that their father is innocent. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Brian Leonard, Daria Hirsch). (N/PA) 10/18/08.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: “Did the Doctor Kill the Doctor?” A report on the October 1993 murder of Dr. Linda (Lin) Goudey in Stoneham, Massachusetts. At the time she was dating Dr. Timothy Stryker, who depending on whom you believe, is either a calculating murderer or an innocent man. Goudey and Stryker had been dating but friends believed they were ready to break up, even though they had planned to vacation together. Less than two weeks before the trip, witnesses say they heard the couple arguing; and it was the last night Goudey was seen alive. Four days after she was last seen at the hospital, Goudey was found facedown, wrapped in a blanket in the back of her car, in a remote corner of the hospital parking lot. The medical examiner determined it was murder and Stryker became the number one suspect. Nothing police found at the scene pointed directly to Stryker, but it was what they didn’t find at the scene that did: her tote bag, the jacket she was wearing and her briefcase were in Stryker’s possession. Soon after, Stryker got himself an attorney and the investigation stalled. Goudey’s family eventually filed a wrongful death suit. Finally, in 2006, after many delays, the suit finally went to a civil court trial where a jury believed Dr. Stryker killed Dr. Lin Goudey and ordered him to pay Lin’s family $15 million. Nobody was surprised that Stryker said he would appeal, but everyone was surprised when he and his lawyer announced they had found a brand new witness. After being questioned by the police, the witness, Craig Pizzano, admitted that Stryker had put him up to it. Stryker was arrested for perjury. This trial hasn’t begun yet, but Goudey’s family hopes that eventually Stryker will be charged with murder. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Deborah Grau). (N/PA) 10/25/08.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: “Blood and Money On Horseshoe Bay.” A report on the November 2005 murder of Charlie White, a larger-than-life Texas millionaire who lived a lavish lifestyle in Horseshoe Bay, Texas. When police were called to White’s lakeside mansion, they found his body, which had been brutally beaten, with an extension cord wrapped around his neck several times. By first impression, White was a very likeable person, but as police investigated his murder, a darker image of White emerged -- one of a cruel man with a dangerous mean streak sharpened by arrogance, alcohol, and women. With an unbridled passion for the fairer sex, White bedded and rated the sexual prowess of over a thousand women, including strippers, prostitutes, and even the girlfriends of his own son Darin, who Charlie used to pick up women to fulfill his needs. As the murder investigation unfolded, police focused on the troubled relationship between father and son and soon settled on Darin as the main suspect. When Darin voluntarily came in for questioning, he admitted to being with Charlie the night he died. Darin claimed that after a trip to Wal-Mart, they returned home, where he and his father got into an argument that turned dangerously violent -- Darin believed that his father was going to kill him. After Darin beat and choked his father, he went upstairs to bed and the next morning, drove to his mother's house in New Mexico. But the Texas Rangers didn't buy Darin's story and found no evidence to show that 73-year-old Charlie put up a fight at all. Arrested for his father's murder, prosecutors maintained that it was a case of premeditated murder. But Darin's attorney, Eddie Shell, maintained that it was a misdemeanor murder and a crime of sudden passion, which carries a much lighter sentence. Shell believed that Darin exploded and killed his father in a fit of rage -- one that was brought on by years of torment and physical abuse. In the end, the jury sentenced Darin White to twenty years confinement in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice Institutional Division for the murder of his father, Charlie White. Darin will be eligible for parole in ten years. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Jay Young, Jenna Jackson). (N/PA) 11/1/08.

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Invitation To A Murder." Police called Mark Winger a hero on Aug. 29, 1995 when he seemingly tried to save his wife, Donnah, from being bludgeoned to death in their home by Roger Harrington, a man with a history of mental illness, whom Winger shot and killed. Four years later, DeAnn Schultz, Donnah's best friend, revealed to police that she and Mark Winger had been having an affair and that he had talked about killing his wife. Polaroid pictures revealing the position of the victims' bodies at the scene of the killings showed that Winger's account of the events lacked credibility. Seven years after the deaths of Donnah Winger and Roger Harrington, Mark Winger was tried and found guilty of murder. He was sentenced to life in prison. Segments include: "Shattered"; "A Hero's Tale"; "Dark Secret"; "Changing Tide"; "Hero Or Villain?" (C: Richard Schlesinger - Sr. P: Hal Gessner - P: Gail Zimmerman, Doug Longhini, Ian Paisley). Update for the 12/13/08 rebroadcast: In the Spring of 2005, an inmate at the prison in Pontiac came forward and said that Mark Winger tried to involve him in a murder-for-hire plot, with DeAnn Schultz as the intended victim and if money allowed, to also kill his father-in-law, Ira Drescher. In June 2007, Winger stood trial in Pontiac and claimed that the whole thing was a fantasy he never planned to carry out. Mark Winger was convicted of soliciting murder and sentenced to another 35 years. He will never be eligible for parole. Winger's second wife has divorced him. Donnah's parents, Sara Jane and Ira Drescher, are helping other abused women and have established a fund in Donnah's name at "Women in Distress", an organization dedicated to empowering domestic violence victims. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Gail Abbott Zimmerman, Doug Longhini) (OAD: 01/15/03; 1st rebroadcast: 06/13/03; 2nd rebroadcast: 08/25/04, included an update). (N/PA) 12/13/08.

OPRAH WINFREY SHOW: "Meeting the Mayor." An emotional Ray Nagin, the mayor of New Orleans, reveals the inhumane suffering he saw in his city (S/PA) 9/6/05.

DR. PHIL SHOW: "The O.J. Simpson Verdict." O.J. Simpson was found guilty on all charges, including kidnapping and assault, in connection with the robbery of two memorabilia collectors at a Las Vegas hotel. Now that a verdict has been reached, Dr. Phil continues his coverage of a trial that is domination headlines. (S/PA) 10/7/08.

7. War on Terrorism/National Security

60 MINUTES: "Kill Bin Laden." An interview/profile of the officer in command of a team from the U.S. Army's secret Delta Force, sent to Tora Bora, Afghanistan by the Pentagon shortly after 9/11 to kill Osama bin Laden. Calling himself Dalton Fury, he is the author of "Kill Bin Laden" and has only recently decided to break his silence in order to correct the inaccuracies regarding his mission. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Shawn Efran). (N/PA) 10/5/08.

60 MINUTES: “The Battle Of Sadr City.” A report on the advanced weaponry used during the spring 2008 battle in Sadr City, Iraq -- home to two million Shia. Part of Baghdad, the area had been under the control of cleric Muqtada al-Sadr and his Shiite militia, who had used the location to launch rockets into the green zone. Utilizing two types of UAV’s (unmanned aerial vehicles) -- the “Shadow” drone and the “Predator” -- U.S. forces were able secure the area and negotiate a cease-fire. Includes comments by General Ray Odierno and Colonel John Hort. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Richard Bonin). (N/PA) 10/12/08.

60 MINUTES: “Combating Afghanistan.” A report on soldiers from the 101st Airborne Division, who are stationed at a small forward operating base in eastern Afghanistan, not far from the Pakistani border, called “Wilderness”. American casualties are highest in this region, where they’re fighting an Afghan warlord, Jalauddin Haqqani and his son, who are closely allied to al-Qaeda. Includes comments from Major General Jeffrey Schlosser, the Deputy U.S. Commander in Afghanistan. (C: Lara Logan - P: Peter Klein, Jeff Newton). (N/PA) 10/19/08.

60 MINUTES: “Coming Home.” Citizen soldiers returning from active military duty are entitled by a law called USERRA to get their old civilian jobs back or be taken back by their employers at the same salaries. With the Pentagon relying so heavily on the National Guard and Reserve to fight in Iraq and Afghanistan, many veterans are coming home to find themselves demoted or penalized or out of a job completely, despite the law. Now, many employers say the law is putting an excessive financial burden on their businesses. Includes comments from Assistant Secretary of Defense Thomas Hall. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Karen M. Sughrue). (N/PA) 11/2/08.

60 MINUTES: “Assault on Pelindaba.” A report on the still unsolved November 7, 2007 attack on Pelindaba, a heavily guarded nuclear plant located in South Africa. In the 1990’s South Africa chose to disarm, but the highly enriched uranium (HUE), the fuel for bombs, still remains on site. Even though it was the boldest attempt ever made on a site holding bomb-grade uranium, South African officials continue to insist that it was a random act. Among those interviewed include: Pelindaba employees Ria Meiring and Anton Gerber; Matthew Bunn of Harvard’s Kennedy School of Government; Ambassador Abdul Minty; Ari Van Der Bijl, general manager at Pelindaba; and Rob Adam, CEO of the Nuclear Energy Corporation of South Africa. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Graham Messick, Michael Karzis). (N/PA) 11/23/08.

60 MINUTES: “The Silver Star” - a profile of Private Monica Brown -- an army medic who was temporarily attached to a paratrooper unit in Paktika Province, Afghanistan and who risked her own life to save two 82nd Airborne Division paratroopers after they were critically wounded when their unit was ambushed as it headed back to base. Awarded a Silver Star for exceptional valor, she is only the second woman to receive the nation’s third-highest combat medal since World War II. (C: Lara Logan - P: Tom Anderson, Jeff Newton). (N/PA) 11/30/08.

FACE THE NATION: Topics for panel discussion: the terrorist attack in Mumbai, India, which began on November 26, 2008 and lasted for three days; President-elect Barack Obama / reaction to the expected nomination of Senator Hillary (D-NY) as Secretary of State and retired Marine General James Jones as White House National Security Advisor / how current Vice President Dick Cheney amassed unprecedented power in his role as vice president / what to expect from Vice President-elect Joe Biden / the civil rights movement and the role it played in this election / the impact of America having its first African-American president -- on white and black America, as well as on the rest of the world / the problems and expectations facing President-elect Obama / the current economic crisis / the situation in Iraq and what needs to be accomplished / the hopes for an Obama presidency. 8. Minority Issues

60 MINUTES: “Gorongosa.” A profile of American entrepreneur Greg Carr, who is using his great wealth to try to help some of the poorest people in Africa by attracting more tourists to their neighborhood -- the beautiful national park of Gorongosa in Mozambique. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Henry Schuster, Rebecca Peterson). (N/PA) 10/26/08.

60 MINUTES: “For Better or For Worse.” A report on the current plan of the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service to deport several hundred widows and a few widowers -- foreigners who'd been married to American citizens when the American died. A foreigner who marries a United States citizen is entitled to become a U.S. resident, but Immigration claims that a widow is not a wife and that if the widow did not complete the process while the husband was alive, she cannot remain in the country -- even if their children were born in the United States. (C: Bob Simon - P: Robert G. Anderson). (N/PA) 11/23/08.

OPRAH WINFREY SHOW: “Oprah Fridays Live.” Rock star Melissa Etheridge shares why she's fired up about the passing of Proposition 8, the California proposition that makes same-sex marriage illegal. (S/PA) 11/14/08.

OPRAH WINFREY SHOW: “Forced to Marry at 14.” A young woman who was forced to marry her cousin at 14 years old speaks out. Find out how she escaped the polygamist sect she grew up in and how she then eventually helped put the leader behind bars. (S/PA) 12/2/08.

DR. PHIL SHOW: “Same Sex Marriage: Proposition 8 Debate.” It's a hot-button topic in California and around the country: The passage of Proposition 8, which reinstated a ban on same-sex marriage. Supporters of this initiative voted to preserve the sanctity of marriage solely between a man and a woman. Opponents of Prop 8 say it violates the constitutional rights of the gay community and that America's laws should treat everyone equally. (S/PA) 11/21/08.

9. Technology Issues

10TV NEWS HD: “OSU Medical Students iPods.” The OSU College of Medicine has decided to buy iPods for all medical students. The devices will contain information from medical texts and classroom lectures. They'll be able to use the iPods to test themselves as well as bring up patient information. OSU is one of the first colleges of medicine in the country to do this. Andrea Cambern reports. (L/N) 12/2/08 5:30 pm, TRT: 0:40.

(L/N) 11/6/08, 6pm, TRT: 1:58.

60 MINUTES: “Brain Power.” A report on brain-computer interface or BCI, a new technology that connects the human brain to a computer, which allows people who are completely paralyzed due to illness or trauma to operate computers, write e-mails, and drive wheelchairs. Scientists hope that in the future, BCI may restore movement to paralyzed people and allow amputees to move bionic limbs. Includes comments from neuroscientist Dr. Jonathan Wolpaw of New York State's Wadsworth Center; Dr. Andy Schwartz, a neuroscientist at the University of Pittsburgh; and Brown University neuroscientist Dr. John Donoghue. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Denise Schrier Cetta). (N/PA) 11/2/08.

DR. PHIL SHOW: “Virtual Chaos.” Sixty-five percent of American households report playing computer and video games, and surprisingly, the average player is 35 years old. Computer games are supposed to be fun, but when a hobby turns into an obsession, virtual fantasy worlds can ruin lives and wreck marriages. (S/PA) 10/20/08.

DR. PHIL SHOW: “Killer Texting.” Do you text message while driving? It may seem harmless, but distracted drivers account for nearly four out of five crashes in the United States, and looking away for just two seconds doubles that danger. Still, nearly 50% of drivers between the ages of 18 and 24 continue to text behind the wheel. (S/PA) 10/23/08.

DR. PHIL SHOW: “Cyber Bullying.” Bullies love an audience, and there’s no bigger playground than the World Wide Web. Cyber bullies can create vulgar MySpace posts to taunt others, or send harassing text messages and threatening e-mails. Dr. Phil tackles this topic head-on with his son, Jay. (S/PA) 10/28/08.

10. Consumer Issues

10TV NEWS HD: “Mental Health Awareness.” Rolled into the 700 billion dollar bailout signed by the President was better coverage for mental health. Insurance now covers mental health without higher co-pays or deductibles. The staff of “Mental Health America of Franklin County” have lobbied for this change for years. Andrea Cambern reports. (L/N) 10/6/08, 5 pm, TRT: 0:45.

10TV NEWS HD: “Fitness Snacks.” A snack food company offers a free gas card if people will try their chips, which are heavily infused with caffeine. An increasing number of snack foods showing up in stores boast a variety of supplements. Dr. Ken Lee of OSU Food Sciences says many claims about supplements are unproven, and marketers are using the addition of these supplements as a way to sell their product. Andrea Cambern reports. (L/N) 11/18/08, 5 pm, TRT: 1:58.

10TV NEWS HD: “Less for Christmas.” This is a tough year for many families. Some people have lost obs. Others are losing their homes. A psychologist at Nationwide Children’s Hospital offers ways parents can help their children realize that it will be a different kind of Christmas. A Lithopolis family says they will focus on the religious significance of the day, not the gifts under the tree. Tracy Townsend reports. (L/N) 12/18/08 5 pm, TRT: 1:10.

10TV News HD: “The Big DTV Test and Phone Bank.” The transition to DTV will take place on February 17, 2009. 10TV gave viewers the chance to see if they are ready for the switch. We also showed what you need to do if you are not DTV ready. 10TV had a phone bank in the studio from 5pm-6:30pm, staffed by HH Gregg employees. (L/N) 11/13/08, 6pm, TRT: 3:23

60 MINUTES: “Wall Street’s Shadow Market.” A report on credit default swaps and their impact on the current economic crisis. Private, largely undisclosed, and deregulated, these are the contracts that mortgage investors, who bought up the riskiest mortgages when they were repackaged by Wall Street as exotic investment securities, entered into to protect themselves in case their investments went bad. When homeowners began defaulting and the Wall Street high-risk mortgage-backed securities also began to fail, the big investment houses and insurance companies who sold the credit default swaps hadn't set aside the money they needed to pay off all the insurance contracts they'd written. Includes interviews with Jim Grant, editor of Grant’s Interest Rate Observer; Frank Partnoy, former derivatives broker; Michael Greenberger, law professor at the University of Maryland; and Robert Pickel, CEO, International Swaps and Derivatives Association. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine) (N/PA) 10/5/08.

60 MINUTES: “The Race For The Electric Car.” A report on the race to develop and produce a practical fuel-free electric car. With an eye to the potential of lithium ion batteries -- the same used in laptop computers -- as a viable power source, environmentally conscious entrepreneurs in Silicon Valley, California are betting their inventiveness can beat out auto executives from Detroit, Michigan. Includes comments by Elon Musk, Chairman of Tesla Motors; Bob Lutz, Vice Chairman of General Motors; and Ray Lane, Senior Partner at Kleiner Perkins and an investor in Fisker Motors. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shachar Bar-On). (N/PA) 10/5/08.

60 MINUTES: “Bank of America” - a profile of the largest U.S. financial institution, Bank of America, headquartered in Charlotte, North Carolina. Now partly owned by the United States of America due to the recent crisis in the American financial system, it recently acquired one of Wall Street’s emblematic companies - Merrill Lynch. 60 MINUTES: “Financial Weapons Of Mass Destruction” - a report on credit derivatives or credit default swaps. Essentially side bets on the performance of the U.S. mortgage markets and the solvency of some of the biggest financial institutions in the world, they are a form of legalized gambling that allows you to wager on financial outcomes without ever having to actually buy the stocks, the bonds and the mortgages. Although illegal for most of the twentieth century, Congress gave Wall Street an exemption eight years ago. Includes interviews with Jim Grant, editor of Grant’s Interest Rate Observer; Frank Partnoy, former derivatives broker; Eric Dinallo, Insurance Superintendent for the State of New York; and Columbia University Law professor Harvey Goldschmid. (a followup to “Wall Street’s Shadow Market”, OAD: 10/05/08) (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine, Jennifer MacDonald). (N/PA) 10/26/08.

60 MINUTES: “T. Boone Pickens” - an interview/profile of billionaire oil and gas maven T. Boone Pickens, who is on a mission to lessen America’s dependence on foreign oil. Warning of an energy crisis as dire as the current financial one, his solution -- the Pickens Plan -- promises to save America from foreign oil by using wind power, solar energy, and domestic natural gas. (C: Charlie Rose - P: Tanya Simon, Andrew Metz). (N/PA) 10/26/08.

FACE THE NATION: Topics include: the current crisis facing the American auto industry / disappointment in the heads of the big three automakers - Chrysler, General Motors, and Ford - on their lack of accountability / disagreement with the view held by many that Congress should allow these companies to go into bankruptcy; the $700 billion financial bailout plan that passed the Congress / response to the concern that the $250 billion already used by the Treasury has not done anything to improve the economy / reaction to the proposed stimulus package by President-elect Obama. Guests: Representative Nancy Pelosi (D-CA), Speaker of the House. (N/PA) 11/23/08.

OPRAH WINFREY SHOW: “Can You Afford That?” “What can I afford?” It’s the bottom-line money question people are asking these days. Should you splurge on your first home, a new car, your dream vacation? On today’s show, financial expert Suze Orman joins Oprah to answer your questions.
