1. Education/Employment

CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL "Unemployment: How Faith Communities Help Job Seekers" - A report on programs created by faith communities to assist people with their job searches and job retraining. The programs are free of charge, conducted by experienced professionals, and most do not require job seekers to be members of the church or religion. This special focuses on four programs: 1) New York City's Riverside Church offers a free six-week barber training program, taught by master barber Dennis F. Thomas, who since 1997 has trained nearly 2,000 people in the basics of barbering. 2) In Chicago, St. Chrysostom's Episcopal Church offers workshops and monthly meetings through their Employment Council, and the Career Transitions Center of Chicago (CTC) offers professional, spiritual, and emotional support to those looking for work or undergoing a career transition. 3) St. James, a Roman Catholic Parish in Stratford, CT offers jobless support groups that help bolster job seekers with new skills, as well as insights as to what employers are seeking today. Includes comments from: Reverend Paul Sherry, Interfaith Worker Justice; Patrick Carolan, Executive Director, Franciscan Action Network; Debra Northern, Director of Social Services, The Riverside Church, NY; Anita Jenke, Executive Director, Career Transitions Center of Chicago; David Kaiser, volunteer career coach, Career Transitions Center of Chicago; Reverend Larry Green, St. Chrysostom's Episcopal Church; Michel Cade, Program Director, St. Chrysostom's Council Employment. (Narrator: Ted Holmes. Producer & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Kathleen Fieffe. Executive Producer & Director: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with: National Council of Churches; United States Conference of Catholic Bishops; The Islamic Society of North America; Union for Reform Judaism; New York Board of Rabbis.). 4/10/11

DR. PHIL: “Saving Hannah” Show #9027 (TV14(L)). Robert and Crystan turn to Dr. Phil, desperate for help with their 14-year-old daughter, Hannah. They say their beautiful, sweet girl has turned into an angry, out-of-control teen, and they think their family is on the brink of disaster. Hannah has been caught shoplifting, accused of arson, has run away for weeks, pulled a knife on her father and threatened to have her parents killed. These frustrated parents say they're forced to call the police for help several times a month. Hannah says her father is abusive and frequently hits her. Why does Robert say he's had to “whoop” his daughter? Can Dr. Phil intervene before someone gets seriously hurt, and can this family heal? 4/27/11

DR. PHIL: “Bullies Beware, Part2” Show #9311 (TV14(L)(S)(D)). The conversation became heated yesterday when Dr. Phil gave self-professed bully Temica RoShawn a reality check about her aggressive behavior. Today's guests Ross and his wife, Lyndy, say bullying hit home for them, when they claim weeks of bullying culminated in their 15-year-old son being sexually assaulted during wrestling practice. The couple also has strong words for Temica RoShawn and bullies like her. Will she see the hurt she's causing and confront the fears that drive her rude behavior? Then, Nancy says she worries she's raising a bully. Her 13-year-old son, Nick, was suspended six times in the past two months, for offenses that include shoving a seventh-grader into a locker and burning another student's neck with a cigarette. Nick says he feels empowered by tormenting others. Hear what Dr. Phil says is at the root of the teen's aggression. 5/17/11

10TV News HD: “Missing Children.” 10TV teamed up with the Ohio Attorney General Office for National Missing Children's Day. 10TV featured pictures of missing central Ohio kids in each newscast throughout the day. DR. PHIL: “Mom Before Prom” Show #9053RR (TVPG(S)). Thanks to reality television, Dr. Phil says teen moms have been celebrated --but are they accurately portraying the realities of young motherhood? Jeanie and Charles say their pregnant 16-year-old daughter, Emily, has created havoc in their marriage as everyone is divided on what is best for Emily and her unborn child. The teen gets a wake-up call when she's given a quiz on the costs of raising a child --and is visited by four teen mothers who tell her what she should really expect. Plus, learn what Dr. Phil thinks is best --and who he says he's most concerned about. (Original Airdate: 1/14/11) 6/10/11

DR. PHIL: “End the Silence on Domestic Violence: Teen Dating Violence” Show #9001RR (TVPG(L)). Every 15 seconds in America, a woman is abused, and it is the most under-reported phenomena in our society. Dr. Phil continues his mission to end the silence on domestic violence! First, he speaks with Mallory, a pregnant 19-year-old, who says her boyfriend, Brett, is abusive. Even though she says he threatened her life, pushed her around and locked her in a closet, she refuses to end the relationship. Brett admits he has anger issues, and although he says he loves Mallory, sometimes he can't stand her. Is there hope for this teen couple? And, Lori fears her 18-year-old daughter, Kelsi, is still involved with her abusive ex-boyfriend. Kelsi admits she's torn between her feelings for her ex and following her family's wishes. Will these teens get a wake-up call when they hear a heartbreaking story from a mother whose daughter was murdered? Teens, do you know the warning signs of abuse and how to exit a dangerous relationship safely? Parents, do you know what to look for if you think your daughter is in a violent relationship? Don't miss this important show! Make some noise -join Dr. Phil's campaign and pledge to end the silence on domestic violence! (Original Airdate: 10/21/10). 6/13/11

DR. PHIL: "Hands Off My Teen Daughter" Show #9047RR (TV14(S)(D)). Melanie says her 19-year-old daughter's boyfriend, Michael, is a gay, drug abusing gangbanger. What would cause her to have such a negative opinion of him? And is there any truth to her allegations? Learn why Michael initially agrees to a drug test, and then refuses. Will he finally break down and take it? And why does Melanie's daughter, Caylin, support him anyway, regardless of the outcome? Then, Lori says her 17-year-old daughter, Mackenzie, is obsessed with a boy who's already broken up with her four times. Find out why Dr. Phil has a stern message for this mom. DR. PHIL: "Angry Women, Scared Husbands" Show #9100 (TV14(L)(S)(D)). You may know that one in four women will become a victim of domestic violence, but did you know that one in nine men will too? Violence against men is rarely talked about and under-reported. Dr. Phil continues his campaign to end the silence on domestic violence with two couples willing to open up about their abusive relationships. Steve says his wife, Monica, punches him and recently pushed him down a flight of stairs. He says he's not only afraid of her abuse, he's afraid of how he may retaliate in the heat of anger. The couple has nine children between them - two of whom are severely disabled - and they're worried about the effect their explosive arguments have on their kids. Then, Charlie worries she'll get so angry at her new husband, Gary, that she'll lash out and inadvertently kill him. Gary says that everything he does makes his wife mad, and he just can't win. Can these women learn to control their tempers and stop the chaos before something tragic happens? Learn more about Dr. Phil's End the Silence on Domestic Violence campaign and pledge to become a silence breaker! 5/27/11

OPRAH: Tortured By His Own Family: The 6-Year-Old Chained In A Closet. In 2000, we told you about one of the most haunting stories of child abuse we've ever heard. Six-year-old Clayton was locked inside a closet, wrapped in a wire fence, and bound with chains like an animal. Now, he's 19 and is speaking out for the first time about the terrifying torture he endured at the hands of his father and stepmother. Plus, the man who saved Clayton's life is reunited with the little boy he could never forget. 4/15/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY "Only Casey Knows" - A follow-up to "The Untold Story of Caylee Anthony" (OAD: 10/17/09). Caylee Anthony was a 2-year-old who went missing in 2008, only to be found dead six months later near her grandparent's home in Orlando, Florida, where she resided with her 22-year-old mother Casey Anthony. Now, as the trial is about to begin, 48 HOURS takes an inside look at her defense. Her attorneys, Jose Baez and Cheney Mason, discuss issues regarding her defense. Their team also consists of forensic expert Larry Kobilinsky and entomologist Tim Huntington who say there is not enough forensic evidence to prove Casey's guilt, and even express doubts as to whether Caylee was actually murdered. Noted forensic anthropologist and novelist Kathy Reichs is also a defense expert who speaks about the case. Jury consultant Richard Gabriel says the most difficult aspect of the case will be finding Florida residents who are impartial because of all the attention the case has garnered: many are convinced that Casey Anthony was responsible for her daughter's death. Florida attorney general Pam Bondi, a former prosecutor herself, speaks about the prosecution, and is convinced the state has enough evidence for a conviction. There also has been speculation that the defense will try to pin the murder on Casey's father, George Anthony. Also interviewed are forensic expert and former member of the defense team, Linda Kenney Baden who comments on this; and fiancé-turned-friend Jesse Grund. Includes previously seen interviews with Cindy and George Anthony, parents of Casey Anthony. Concluding onscreen graphic: Opening arguments in the trial are expected to begin May 17. The judge has the right to have jurors consider a lesser charge than first-degree murder. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Ira Sutow, Jonathan Leach, Gail Abbott Zimmerman). 4/16/11

60 MINUTES: "The Case of Beckett Brennan" - A report on how the judicial review board at the University of the Pacific in Stockton, California, adjudicated the report, by student Beckett Brennan, that she had been raped by three of the school's basketball players. Includes interviews with: Beckett Brennan; Barry and Jane Brennan, Beckett's parents; Krystina Tonetti, sexual assault victim and former classmate of Beckett Brennan; Janine Simerly, attorney representing the University of the Pacific; Joelle Gomez, administrator, San Joaquin Women's Center, Stockton, California. (C: Katie Couric - P: Graham Messick, Ashley Velie). 4/17/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY "Grave Injustice" - A report on the case of Anthony Graves, who spent eighteen years -- twelve of them on death row -- in a Texas prison for murders he did not commit. In 1992, the Davis family, four of them young children, were found bludgeoned, shot and stabbed to death, in the charred remains of the family home in Somerville, Texas. Texas Rangers quickly zeroed in on Robert Carter: father of the youngest victim, 4-year-old Jason, he was recently served with papers for child support and Rangers believed he wanted his boy dead. Carter eventually admitted that he was at the crime scene, but said that another man, Anthony Graves, committed the murders. There was little to connect Graves to Carter or to the Davis family, but justice was swift, and Anthony Graves was convicted of six counts of capital murder and sentenced to death. He always proclaimed his innocence. Carter was also convicted. In 2000, while in the death chamber, Robert Carter took sole responsibility for the murders. In fact, he had been saying much the same for years. Then in 2002, the case caught the eye of Professor Nicole Casarez and her journalism students. After a four-year investigation, the students concluded that Anthony Graves was an innocent man. Texas Monthly editor Pam Coloff, who herself spent months investigating the case, reached the same conclusion. The students turned their findings over to Graves' attorneys, helping to trigger a chain of legal maneuvers that, in 2010, freed him from prison. Now, he is fighting to get compensation for his wrongful incarceration. Concluding onscreen text graphic: Due to a technicality in the wording on his release papers, Texas is refusing to compensate Anthony Graves. Otherwise, he would be entitled to $1.4 million for wrongful incarceration. Includes interviews with Anthony Graves; Nicole Casarez, professor, University of St. Thomas, Houston; Pam Coloff, Texas Monthly editor; Charles Sebesta (District Attorney); Kelly Siegler (District Attorney); Meghan Bingham (student); Arthur Curry (Graves' brother); Katherine Scardino (attorney); Jimmy Phillips (attorney); Roy Rueter (Graves' friend); Otto Hanak (investigator). (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Lourdes Aguiar, Jenna Jackson). 4/23/11

10TV News HD: "Cracking Cold Cases." 10TV News kicked off May with a daylong event titled "Cracking Cold Cases." In each newscast (5am, 6am, 5pm, 5:30pm, 6pm and 11pm) we featured an unsolved murder in central Ohio. 10TV also teamed up with Crime Stoppers of Central Ohio to host an all day phone bank on the 28th. The representatives took tips on the crimes we profiled as well as any and all crimes that have taken place in our community. The phone bank received more than 60 legitimate tips throughout the day which could lead to some of these crimes being solved. At 11pm, we featured an interview with Erick Acosta. This was his first television interview since his wife was killed during a carjacking near Tuttle Mall last Christmas. Angela An & Jeff Hogan report. (L/N) 4/28/11

DR. PHIL: "In Cold Blood: A Daughter Murdered" Show #9413 (TV14(L)(S)(D)(V)). A sleepy Indiana town awoke one chilly Saturday morning in the winter of 1992 to discover the lifeless body of 12-year-old Shanda Sharer in an open field. She had been stabbed, strangled, beaten and burned alive. Who committed such a vicious and heinous crime against a child? As authorities hunted for the killer, a far more terrifying truth emerged in this picturesque Midwestern town and by day's end, police had arrested four teenage girls - -three of whom had never met the victim until the day they abducted, kidnapped, tortured and lit her on fire. The story has captivated news headlines for 20 years, but for the first time on national television, Shanda's grief-stricken mother, Jacque, and sister, Paije, share their story. Who was Shanda in her short life? How have they coped in the years since her death? What do they think of the now grown women convicted of her murder? And could they ever forgive them? Plus, don't miss the heart-wrenching confrontation Monday when Jacque and Paije face one of the four murderers since released from prison. 5/20/11
