2. Youth

10TV NEWS: Children Resolutions. Just like adults, the American Academy of Pediatrics says children should commit to exercising at least three times a week. 5PM TRT: 45 (Tracy Townsend). 1/4/13

DR PHIL: "Teenage Rage" Show #11078. Phyllis and Barry say they're desperate to calm their violent 15-year-old son, Brandon, and turn to Dr. Phil for help. The couple confides that signs of their son's anger began around age 6 and have grown progressively worse --so much so that their requests for Brandon to perform simple tasks such as brushing his teeth or bathing cause him to go into a rage, breaking things and punching holes in walls, and even chasing Phyllis with scissors. Barry says they walk on eggshells, waiting for Brandon's next violent outburst and that every day he leaves the house worried that his wife may not make it to the end of the day. For protection, the couple says they've even installed locks on various doors throughout their home, providing Phyllis a "safe room" in which to hide. Dr. Phil spends some one-on-one time with the young man to determine what's driving his behavior. 1/9/13

10TV NEWS: ADHD and Boys' Growth. A California study finds a big spike in the number of kids with ADHD. A doctor says he suspects the reason is because physicians are doing a better job of diagnosing the condition. 5:30pm TRT: 1:32 (Kristyn Hartman). 1/21/13

DR PHIL: "Children Sent Away: Trapped and Tortured?" Show #10059. Twenty-four-year-old Marianne says her mom, Tami, ruined her life when, as a teen, she sent her to a therapeutic boarding school for 19 months --and her "nightmare" began." Marianne says life at the facility was horrible and claims she was abused by the staff --and that her mom did nothing to stop it. Despite her daughter's experience, Tami stands by her decision and insists that the program saved Marianne's life. After five years of not speaking, Marianne and Tami come face to face on Dr. Phil's stage. Then, siblings Nick and Theresa say as teens they were abused at a residential treatment facility, where they felt trapped and tortured. Their mom, Leslie, says she was brainwashed into thinking her kids would die if she took them out of the program. 1/22/13

10TV NEWS: Children's Hospital Research. Ohio's two senators are working on legislation that would help researchers share information on their findings on rare diseases, like spinal muscular atrophy. The family of a child with that ailment went to Washington, D.C. to lobby for the legislation. 5:30pm TRT: 1:25 (Jim Heath). 1/28/13

10TV NEWS: Children and TV. A report in the journal "Pediatrics" finds that the more TV that kids watch, the more aggressive and anti-social they became. The American Academy of Pediatrics says kids under 2 should not watch TV and those over age 2 should be limited to two hours a day. 5pm TRT: 1:18 (Kristyn Hartman). 2/18/13

DR PHIL: "Young, Online and Out of Control" Show #11105. Terri says she trusted and thought she knew her 15-year-old daughter, Sierra --who she believed was a popular teen, earning good grades --until Sierra disappeared and was discovered by police, days later, after witnessing a murder. Terri says she then learned that Sierra had been living a very different life --experimenting with drugs, meeting men online and having sexual relationships with them --many of whom were twice her age. Despite Sierra's alleged traumatic experience, Terri says her daughter continues to travel down a troubled path. This program contains strong sexual content. Viewer discretion advised. 2/25/13

10TV NEWS: ADHD for a Lifetime. A study in the journal "Pediatrics" finds that many children who are diagnosed with ADHD in childhood, never outgrow it, and deal with issues related to ADHD as adults. More than half the adults studied with ADHD also had at least one other mental health disorder. 5:30pm TRT 1:18 (Tracy Townsend). 3/4/13

10TV NEWS: Kids Contact Lens Clinic. The OSU College of Optometry has started a new clinic for children to be fitted with contact lenses. The doctors usually start when kids are at least 8 years old, but have fitted the children as young as 4. Their research that putting contacts on kids at a younger age may lessen the progression of their nearsightedness. 5:30pm TRT:1:21 (Kristyn Hartman). 3/20/13

3. Political Issues

FACE THE NATION: Topics include: Representative Pelosi's disagreement with Senate Republican leader McConnell's opinion that the tax revenue debate is over and that Congress must now focus on spending / tax reform / specifics on entitlement reform as a way to cut spending / reaction to Representative Boehner's assessment that every dollar that goes to raising the debt ceiling must be matched with a dollar of spending cuts / upcoming fiscal deadlines / reasons behind the partisanship in Washington, which keeps both parties from working together, resulting in these looming deadlines. Guest: Representative Nancy Pelosi (D-CA), House Minority Leader. 1/6/13

10TV NEWS: "Inauguration Coverage." 10TV's Special Projects Unit began 2013 with complete coverage of the Inauguration of President Barack Obama. 5. Women's Issues

DR PHIL: "Bipolar and Mentally Ill Moms" Show #11020. Dr. Phil goes behind the stigma of mental illness to show how it's affecting two families. Amanda, 24, is a mother of two who says she's bipolar, and that during manic episodes, she becomes violent and screams, yells and shakes. Find out what Dr. Phil cameras capture at her home. Amanda says that despite her illness, her sister, Rianne, and mom, Lori, are insensitive and mean to her --but they say they believe Amanda may be taking advantage of her diagnosis. Rianne says Amanda acts out and uses her illness as an excuse --including an incident in which Rianne claims Amanda punched her in the face and lied to police about it. Then, Jenny is a 56-year-old mother of three who says she suffers from dissociative identity disorder, formally known as multiple personality disorder. She says she has 22 "alters," who she calls "parts of me." Jenny reveals the traumatic childhood experiences that she believes caused her to take on multiple personalities. And, Jenny's son, Robert, 30, shares what life was like growing up with Jenny. Then, Jenny's therapist, Judy, who wrote the book, 22 Faces, based on Jenny's journals and their sessions together, joins the show to defend herself against accusations that she may be exploiting her patient. 1/11/13

DR OZ: Five Epic Diet Mistakes Smart Women Are Making. 1/17/13

DR PHIL: "Girls Who Bash Girls Who Dress Sexy" Show #11088. Dr. Phil takes on the hot-button topic of what some are calling "slut-shaming" --when young women are taunted and harassed, often online, for their sexual behavior, such as having casual sex, having more than one sexual partner or dressing provocatively. This form of bullying, like others, can lead to tragic consequences. Fifteen-year-old Felicia Garcia sent her last tweet, "I can't, I'm done, I give up," before jumping in front of a train, while many of her classmates looked on. Friends of the freshman say she was tormented by bullies for alleged sexual encounters with football players. What can parents and students do to prevent another senseless act? 1/18/13

DR PHIL: "Distorted Beauty" Show #11052 (TV 14 (L)) April is a drop-dead gorgeous 21-year-old, but she sees a hideous monster in the mirror. April says she believes her face is so ugly, that she sometimes thinks the only escape might be to end her life. For the last 11 years, April says she's spent countless hours with her worst enemy, the mirror. April compulsively picks at her skin --so much so that she believes she's developed scoliosis from sitting hunched forward on her bathroom sink. Beautiful April thinks she is so incredibly grotesque, she is ashamed to show her face in public. Will Dr. Phil be able to convince April to remove the layers of makeup she has hidden behind for more than a decade? Can Dr. Phil help her see how beautiful she truly is? And, adorable Meghan, 15, says she hates how she looks so much, she often wishes she had never been born. Meghan's mother, Christine, says her daughter's intense self-hatred and daily violent breakdowns are ripping their family apart. Then, Rebecca, 25, says she suffered from body dysmorphic disorder (BDD) for more than 10 years before she sought help two years ago. Don't miss her message of hope for both girls. 1/23/13

DR PHIL: "Soccer Mom Madam Confession" Show #11405. When the woman dubbed the "New York Soccer Mom Madam," Anna Gristina sat down with Dr. Phil in September 2012, she denied accusations of running a multimillion dollar prostitution empire and claimed she had been wrongly targeted by investigators who were "out to get her." Three weeks later, Anna shockingly pleaded guilty to one count of promoting prostitution. Now, Anna says she's ready to come clean to Dr. Phil. Plus, hear how she says her simple matchmaking company flourished into a global business with a roster of wealthy and prominent clientele, allegedly including professional football players and management. 2/4/13

10TV NEWS: Pregnancy and Blood Pressure. A new study finds that women who develop high blood pressure while pregnant, are at greater risk of developing heart disease later in life. 5pm TRT: 35 (Kristyn Hartman). 2/11/13

10TV NEWS: Folic Acid and Autism. A new study in the Journal of American Medical Association finds that women who took folic acid supplements before they conceived and for 2 months afterwards,, cut their risk of having a child with ADHD by 39 percent. 5pm TRT: 1:13 (Kristyn Hartman). 2/12/13

DR PHIL: "Ex-Wives Seeking Justice" Show #11101. Sherrie Daly, former wife of pro golfer John Daly, and Siohvaughn Funches-Wade, ex-wife of Miami Heat star Dwyane Wade, open up to Dr. Phil about their highly-publicized divorces and custody battles --and why they believe they lost custody of their children. First, Sherrie says her 9-year marriage to the so-called bad boy of golf was "either heaven or hell," and that John's heavy drinking and infidelity contributed to the demise of their relationship in 2010. Sherrie attempts to clear up the misconceptions that she says continue to haunt her in the headlines. Then, Siohvaughn says she has been unfairly labeled as "crazy" and "violent," after her contentious divorce and custody battle with NBA superstar Dwyane Wade played out in the media. 3/13/13

DR PHIL: "Teen Mama Drama: Did She Get Pregnant to Get on TV?" Show #11002RR. Kayla, 18, and Vincent, 17, say that they dated for just four months before Kayla discovered she was pregnant. Shortly before giving birth to Milo, now 9 months, the young couple broke up. Kayla's mom, Jill, and stepdad, Mike, believe Kayla got pregnant intentionally, to earn a role on one of the popular teen pregnancy reality TV shows --a claim Kayla denies. Kayla says as a teen mom, she quickly realized she was in over her head and signed custody of Milo over to her mom. Jill and Mike say that Kayla is immature and would rather party than be a mother. (Original Airdate: 11/6/12). 3/21/13

DR PHIL: "Dangerous Minds: Women Who Snap" Show #11129. Dr. Phil speaks exclusively to Brenda and Jeremy Perry, who tragically lost their 2-year-old and 6-month-old sons, Alton and Ashton, just weeks ago, at the hands of Brenda's mother, Debra, who then turned the gun on herself. Brenda says she had concerns about her mother's mental health and never left the children alone with her --so, why was Debra allowed to pick the boys up from daycare on that day? Dr. Phil prepares Brenda and Jeremy for the difficult days ahead. Plus, find out how you can help the young couple. Then, in 2010, Bethany Storro made headlines when she claimed a stranger threw acid in her face, leaving her disfigured. She later confessed she had intentionally applied industrial-strength drain cleaner to her face. 3/27/13

6. Crime

10TV NEWS: Olentangy School Lockdown: Deputies search for suspect who sparked lockdowns at eight Delaware schools. 1/23/13 6pm 1:30pkg

48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "An Officer and a Hero" (9:00-10:00p) - A report on the October 5, 2009 botched robbery and home invasion that left off-duty St. Louis Police Officer Isabella Lovadina and her then-boyfriend, firefighter Nick Koenig grievously wounded and his cousin Gina Stallis dead. Lovadina and Koenig were taking an EMT class together in October 2009 in St. Louis, Missouri, and after class one evening they went to Nick's grandmother's house to study. When Nick walked Isabella to her car at 12:30am, she placed her gun and bulletproof vest inside and went to give Nick a hug goodbye. Two males approached them with guns drawn demanding whatever they had, and when Isabella said she didn't have anything they pointed to Nick's grandmother's house and directed them to go inside. Isabella and Nick were forced to their knees in the hallway upon entry. One of the gunmen, described as wearing a red hoodie with two gold teeth, went upstairs where Ida Rask, Nick's grandmother, his Aunt Rose, his cousin Gina Stallis and her two young sons were sleeping. The gunman forced Gina to carry a large TV down the stairs and the three women were then pressured to kneel next to Nick and Isabella while the two boys were left alone. Isabella decided to lunge up against the gunman described as wearing a black hoodie and started fighting with him, while Nick fought with the other man. Rose ran out the front door and started approaching neighbor's houses for help, with no avail. Shots rung out and Isabella was struck by the man in the black hoodie five times, point blank; Nick was shot three times, and Gina suffered shots that killed her. Gina's son Sam, 9-years old at the time, called 911 and soon after police and EMT's arrived. The intruders ran away before cops arrived. Isabella and Nick were rushed to the hospital. Nick had a bullet stuck in the back of his neck, too close to the spinal cord to operate on. A short time after the robbery a man checked into the ER at Barnes Hospital across town with a gunshot wound in his hand, and the ER technician tending to him noticed his gold teeth, the red hoodie covered in blood, and told the cops immediately. Police arrived at Barnes Hospital and arrested Ledale Nathan when they identified his red hoodie, and chased the man in the black hoodie, Mario Coleman, into a park and arrested him. Police found Nick's grandmother's jewelry and a black gun tossed in the park nearby. After Isabella identified the two men they were charged with first degree murder. Nathan was 16-years old at the time of the incident but he stood trial as an adult and the jury found him guilty. Coleman's trial was next and he was also found guilty of murder. Rose Whitrock has taken custody of her grandchildren. Two and a half years after the incident Nick was in a car accident and soon after he coughed up the bullet that was lodged in his cervical spine. Isabella retired from the Police Department and at her final roll call Mayor Francis G. Slay of St. Louis proclaimed February 6, 2012 as Police Officer Isabella Lovadina day. Interviewed: Isabella Lovadina, victim; Nick Koenig, victim; Rose Whitrock, Nick's aunt, victim; Ida Rask, Nick's grandmother, victim; Sgt. Roger Engelhardt, St. Louis Police Dept.; Officer Lori Brewer, St. Louis Police Dept.; Beth Orwick, prosecutor; John Bird, prosecutor. (Producers: Shoshanah Wolfson, Sara Rodriguez) (OAD: 05/19/12). 1/26/13

48 HOURS: "Crazy Love" (10:00-11:00p) - A report on the investigation into the 2009 murder of millionaire Ben Novack, Jr. in Rye Brook, New York. Novack was the son of Bernice and Benjamin Novack, Sr., who once owned the famed Miami hotspot, The Fontainebleau Hotel, where the rich and famous came to stay in the 1960s. When the family lost their fortune and the hotel in the 70's, Benji was inspired to start his own business planning conferences for corporate clients, which earned him millions. Friends described him as a brat who ruled his empire by fear and who had a lot of enemies. Police suspected his wife Nancy, but did not have enough evidence to charge her; then they received a letter, in Spanish, which stated that Nancy Novack and her brother Cristobal Veliz were responsible for the crime. Police believed that Veliz had hired two men, Alejandro Garcia and Joel Gonzalez to kill Benji Novack. After arresting the two, Gonzalez implicated Novack and Veliz, along with Garcia. They were arrested on murder charges. A year later, reporter Julie Brown began looking into the circumstances of Bernice Novack's death, said to be from a fall. Convinced she had discovered a murder, she took her findings to the Fort Lauderdale police department. And as investigators were making a deal with Alejandro Garcia to testify against Nancy and Cristobal, he revealed he had also been hired to attack Bernice. Novack and Veliz were once again charged with murder. The motive: Nancy Novack knew Benji was having an affair and the pre-nuptial agreement only guaranteed her $65,000 in the event of a divorce. She had to kill Benji and his mother to get all the money. Interviewed: Joe Mathews, Miami Beach homicide detective; Westchester County (NY) Detective Alison Carpentier; Michael Allen, director of tourism, Miami, FL; reporter Julie Brown; Charlie Serayder, former Miami, FL police officer and a friend of Ben Novack; Det. Sgt. Terry Wilson, Rye Brooke, NY Police; Ben Novack's aunt Maxine Fiel; Novack's girlfriend Rebecca Bliss; Cristobal Veliz. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Chuck Stevenson, Dena Goldstein). 1/26/13

48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "The Stranger You Know" (8:00-9:00p) - A report about Marti Hill, who was savagely beaten in her Prairie Village, Kansas home -- and her attacker, who refuses to say why. Hill did not show up for work one day in September 2010, and her co-workers grew concerned when she did not answer texts or phone calls. Police were summoned after Hill's boss drove to her home and found her car still in the driveway. She was found by police, at the bottom of the basement steps, barely breathing and covered in blood. Believing she was dying, Prairie Village Police Officer Bill Baldwin tried to coax out of her who was behind the vicious attack. Doctors were not sure that she would survive; she was beaten and her throat slashed open. They spent hours treating her. Police found out that Marti was a workaholic, and if she was not working, she was at home. Her ex-husband was ruled out as a suspect. Hill's mother alerted police towards Brian Pennington, a construction worker whom both she and Marti had hired to do work. Police questioned him and became suspicious, but needed to hear Marti's side of the story. They soon learned she was recovering and able to talk to police. She confirmed to police that Brian Pennington had attacked her; he was arrested for attempted first-degree murder. Frustrating to police was the fact that Pennington apparently had absolutely no motive. However, they found that he had a record of over sixty contacts with law enforcement, including several domestic violence incidents involving women. During the preliminary hearing, Pennington eventually agreed to a plea deal; the only issue would be how long he would be held in the Kansas State prison system. It took months, but finally a twenty-eight-and-a-half year prison sentence was agreed upon. To this day, no one knows why Pennington attacked Marti Hill. Interviewed: Marti Hill; Tom Mai, Marti's boss; co-workers Stephanie Scheibler, Jan Schul; Dr. Harry Wilkins III, trauma surgeon; Prairie Village Police Officer Bill Baldwin; Prairie Village Police Detectives Luke Roth and Jason Wakefield; Shirley Roth, Marti's mother; Mackenzie Hill, Marti's daughter; Cami Gill and Monica Gill, Marti's sisters; Dr. Kim Poecker; Prosecutor Vanessa Riebli. 48 HOURS: "The Accuser" (9:00-10:00p) - A follow-up to "Dream Killer" (OAD: 02/18/06) and "The Lost Night" (OAD: 03/26/11). Correspondent Erin Moriarty and the 48 HOURS team have been investigating the murder of sports editor Kent Heitholt and the bizarre circumstances that have put Ryan Ferguson in prison for the crime. Heitholt was found bludgeoned and strangled in 2001. Two years later, police got a tip that Charles Erickson had told a friend that he and Ryan Ferguson may have committed the crime because they were out drinking the night of the murder and had decided to rob someone, but his memory of the incident was foggy. Based on Erickson's confession, both were arrested and tried for murder. During the trial, Erickson offered key details in his testimony that were not part of his initial confession. Both were found guilty. Ryan Ferguson received a forty year sentence. Ferguson's father's unceasing efforts to prove his son's innocence led to the discovery of evidence contradicting Erickson's story. Then Jerry Trump, a trial witness, recanted his testimony. With the assistance of attorney Kathleen Zellner, a new hearing was secured. Then Erickson's story changed again. He agreed to speak exclusively to 48 HOURS to reveal new details about how his confession put both men in prison. He said he has lied before and exonerated Ryan Ferguson, but his new version of the story also had its problems. Jerry Trump said he felt pressured to lie during the trial and was haunted by his testimony. The appeal commenced. It was denied; the judge sided with the Missouri attorney general and said that Erickson was far more credible seven years ago than he is today. The conviction stands. Interviewed: Ryan Ferguson; his father, Bill Ferguson; the accused Chuck Erickson; sports writer Michael Boyd; janitor/witness Shawna Ornt; attorney Kathleen Zellner; forensic pathologist Dr. Larry Blum.
